

CITY IN BRIEF

Advertising Well.

San Francisco is advertising her can, diaries for the Panama exposition in great style. Every traveling man who passes through here is distrib- butting buttons right and left bearing the legend "Frisco 1915" thereon. Numbers of local business men are wearing them.

Wanted, a few more benders; all home cooking. Mrs. Hall, Clawson Hill.

Case Postponed.

On account of illness, Justice Burdick has postponed the case of William Black, charged with the malicious destruction of a quantity of the city's cement in a recent row with the street department on O. K. Trail, has been postponed until tomorrow afternoon.

Wonderful Clock.

An extra fine clock, patterned after "Big Ben," a famous clock in London, is on exhibition in the window of Gilman's jewelry store on Main street. Price, if taken today, $48.00.

Justice Burdick Ill.

Justice T. D. Burdick was taken very ill Sunday and the services of a physician called. The justice attended to a few cases yesterday morning, but had to give up in the afternoon and retire.

Worn Out.

That's the way you feel about the lungs when you have a hacking cough. It's foolishness to let it go on and trust to luck to get over it, when Ballard's Horehound Syrup will stop the cough and heal the lungs.

Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Lowell Drug Co., Lowell, Arizona.

Glancy Goes Home.

R. K. Glancy has returned to his home at Santa Rosalia, Mexico, after attending the stockholders meeting of the Santa Rosalia Gold Mining company, which was held yesterday in this city.

Stagner to Hospital.

W. L. Stagner was taken to the Copper Queen hospital yesterday, suffering from appendicitis.

Mrs. Wattles Improves.

Mrs. Wattles, who was operated on recently at the Copper Queen hospital, has been moved to her home, but is still confined to her bed.

Resumes His Position.

James Hanlon, an employee at the Houston shaft, who has been laying off for the past six weeks on account of ill health, was able to resume his position this morning.

Birth Record.

Following is the birth record of the past day or two: To Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Howes of Lowell, a son; to Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hard of Osborn, a son; to Mr. and Mrs. John W. Johnson, of Bisbee, a daughter.

Mrs. Hubbard Out.

For the first time in many weeks, Mrs. Walter G. Hubbard, who has been dangerously ill, was able to get out, and enjoyed a drive about the district.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF ANDAPACHE COPPER MINING AND SMELTING COMPANY.

KNOW ALL MEN By These Presents: That we, the undersigned, do hereby associate ourselves together for the purpose of forming a corporation under the laws of Arizona, and to that end and purpose do certify and declare:

I. The names of the incorporators and their places of residence are:

Maurice L. Sindband, 335 Madison

Avenue, New York City;

Clarence Alexander, 22 Carroll

Street, Yonkers, N. Y.

Percy L. Thompson, 503 West 124th

Street, New York City.

II. The name of the corporation shall be ANDAPACHE COPPER MINING AND SMELTING COM-PANY.

III. The principal place of business of the company in Arizona shall be at Douglas, Cochise County and the principal office outside of Arizona shall be at New York City, New York; and the corporation may have such other offices within or without the Territory of Arizona, as may be established by the stockholders or Board of Directors, and at such office or offices, either within or without Arizona, the meeting of the incorporators, stockholders and directors may be held, and all other corporate business transacted; and the corporate books may be kept either within or without the Territory of Arizona.

IV. The general nature of the business proposed to be done and transacted and carried on by the said corporation is as follows:

IN GENERAL, to engage in and carry on the business of mining, refining, smelting, crushing, treating, assaying, and extracting any and all kinds of ore, minerals and metals; to purchase, lease, or acquire by license, bond, contract, concession, grant, or in any and every other way any lands, mines, mineral rights, water rights and water courses and sources, rights of way, ditches, pipes, pipelines, buildings, easements, franchises, rights or privileges, timber lands, gas-wells, oil-wells, lime-beds or quarries, machinery, plant or other effects whatsoever which the said corporation may think proper at any time, to acquire for any of its purposes; to prospect and search for ores and minerals; to take all necessary steps to locate, denounce or in any other manner acquire the title to and right to mine for any such ore, or minerals; to improve, develop, mine and grant licenses for mining in and over any lands which may be acquired by the said corporation; and to sell, transfer, mortgage, or otherwise convey or dispose of any of the lands, mines, mineral rights and privileges, and any and all other property, real or personal, of the said corporation; to buy, sell, manufacture or implement, appliances, conveniences, provisions and all other things capable of being used in connection with mining operations, transportation, smelting, quarrying, etc., or required by workmen, or others employed by the company; to buy and sell at wholesale or at retail goods, wares and merchandise of any and every kind and species, and to maintain stores and establishments for the carrying on of such business at any and every place where the same may be deemed desirable; to construct, carry out, improve, manage, work, control, own and superintend any roads, ways, railways, means of transportation and communication mechanical or electrical, bridges, reservoirs, water courses, aqueduct, wharves, furnaces, mills, crushing works, electric works, factories, warehouses and other works and conveniences which may be deemed directly or indirectly conducive to any of the objects of the company; and to contribute to, subscribe or otherwise aid, or participate in any such operations or to produce by contract, or otherwise, any such operations to be carried on by other persons, or corporations, for the benefit of this corporation; to buy, sell, or otherwise dispose of the bonds, debentures, notes, obligations, capital stock or shares thereof, of this or of any other corporation; also to borrow money and to execute the proper notes, bonds, debentures, mortgages, deeds of trust or other securities to secure the same; to acquire and hold any patent rights, and processes, secret or otherwise, which may be deemed beneficial to the carrying on of any part of the business of this corporation, as above specified; to lay out and plan town sites and additions to town sites, and to convey, transfer, or otherwise dispose of lots or tracts of ground therein; to carry on any or all of the businesses or operations herein before specified, either on its own account, or by contract or otherwise, for, in connection with, or on behalf of other persons, associations or corporations; and GENERALLY, to do and all acts and things, and do and transact any and all other matters and businesses whatever, incidental to the purposes aforesaid, and not contrary to the laws of the Territory of Arizona, or of the United States of America.

V. The capital stock shall be Two Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($2,500,000), divided into Five hundred Thousand (500,000) shares of the par value of Five Dollars ($5) each; and any or all of said stock may be issued fully paid and non-assessable at such time or times, and in such amounts, as the directors may designate, in exchange for cash, property, services, or any other valuable right or thing, shall be conclusive and binding upon the company.

VI. The time of the commencement of the corporation shall be the date of the filing of these Articles of Incorporation with the County Recorder of the County of Cochise, Arizona, and with the filing of a certificate of the stockholders of this corporation with the Auditor of the Territory of Arizona; and the termination of the corporation shall be Twenty-five (25) years thereafter with the privilege of renewal, as it now or may hereafter be provided by law.

VII. The affairs of this corporation shall be conducted by a Board of Directors consisting of not less than three (3) and not more than (9) persons, all of whom must be stockholders; and said Directors shall be elected at the annual meeting of the stockholders which shall be held upon the 10th day of January of each year. Maurice L. Sindband, Clarence Alexander, and Percy L. Thompson or their successors in office shall constitute the Board of Directors until the first annual meeting of the stockholders to be held on January 10th, 1910. The Directors are empowered to make such by-laws and regulations as they may deem necessary for the proper management of the corporation, to fill vacancies in the Board, and to appoint an Executive Committee with such powers as they may confer.

VIII. The highest amount of indebtedness or liability, direct or contingent, to which this corporation may be at any time subject, shall be One Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($1,500,000), which amount does not exceed two-thirds (2/3) of the amount of the capital stock.

IX. The private property of the stockholders of this corporation shall be forever exempt from its corporate debts of any kind whatsoever.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF we have hereunto set our hands and seals this 10th day of November, A. D. 1909.
